

WIDEHORIZONS OUTDOOR EDUCATION TRUST

Fundraising Sponsored Abseil

What is it?

The Widehorizons Outdoor Education Trust is the provider of Outdoor Education to the London Boroughs of Greenwich and Lewisham. We are offering you the opportunity to abseil 23 metres or 75 feet to raise money for charity.

Where & When?

Eltham Green School, Middle Park Avenue, London, SE9 5EQ
 Saturday & Sunday 11 & 12th July 2009. Start Time 9am, finish 5pm each day

Who is it for?

Open to all Greenwich and Lewisham Schools and Youth Groups
 Minimum age: Year 5 (9 year olds), Maximum age: Adults!
 Teams can be all adults, a mixed team or all children

How will it be organised?

There will be 6 abseiling ropes, with time for 5 descents each half hour.
 Rope slots will be sold to schools, Minimum slot 1 rope for ½ an hour (=5 abseils)

How will the trust raise money?

Schools buy 1 or more rope slots, 1 rope per ½ hour @ £125, payable after the event

How will my school raise money?

For example ... 5 teachers + 20 students each raise sponsorship to the value of £65 each
 5 ropes for half an hour = £625 for Widehorizons,
£1,000 for your school... to use toward school visits,
 ...for a school project,

Just lean back!

...to donate to another good cause
 ...(such as Widehorizons!)

It's for teachers too!

Will it be safe?

Full public and products liability insurance is held, and the Trust is the approved provider of Outdoor Education to Greenwich & Lewisham. All abseil staff are qualified and experienced. Safety equipment such as harnesses and helmets will be provided. An Adventure Activities licence (AALA) is held. We have held previous successful abseils held here and at Riverside House in Greenwich.

What we will provide!
