

What do woodland animals eat?

Mammals

A fox is a carnivore. It hunts other animals smaller than itself.

Badgers eat invertebrates that live on the ground.

Rabbits are herbivores.

Bats eat flying invertebrates.

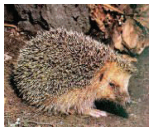

Mice eat plants and small invertebrates.

Squirrels are omnivores. They eat nuts, seeds and invertebrates.

Deer graze on leafy plants.

Hedgehogs eat invertebrates.

Shrews need to eat invertebrates to give them lots of energy.

Amphibians

Frogs eat invertebrates.

Reptiles

Adders eat small mammals.

Slow worms eat invertebrates.

Birds

Magpies are scavengers. They eat anything.

Owls hunt for small mammals and birds.

Bluetits eat invertebrates, nuts and seeds. They eat plants and animals so they are omnivores.

Blackbirds eat worms, seeds and berries.

Hawks are carnivores. They hunt small mammals and birds.

Invertebrates

Snails are herbivores.

Flies eat anything.

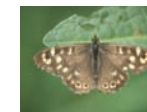

Caterpillars eat leaves.

Woodlouse eat rotting plants.

Worms eat dead leaves.

Butterflies eat nectar from flowers.